

Brief Profile: Major General Jayant Varma (Retd.)

Former Executive Director (North), Knight Frank (India)

Major General Jayant Varma retired from the Indian Army in early 2004 after 38 years of service. During his service in the Army he held many command and staff appointments and served within the country and abroad.

A graduate of the National Defence College and the Defence Services Staff College, Wellington, he holds a post graduate degree from the University of Madras. On leaving the Army, he joined Knight Frank, the International Property Consultants, as its Executive Director (North) in mid 2004. He has, thereafter, managed the north India operations of the Company and been part of the growth of the Company and the booming Real estate market for the last three years. He has been contributing articles to various business and real estate magazines on the real estate market as also spoken on related subjects in various forums and the electronic media.